

LFA Sky Rides: The Best of France in London with Stephen Bayley

2000 ft
500 m

A bike tour of the best of France in London. Stopping at the Michelin Building, Westminster Abbey to see the influence of Reims, Amiens and Chartre, the Wallace Collection to view their collection of French furniture and art, Piccadilly to see Erno Goldfinger's homage to Le Corbusier, Jean Cocteau's murals in the Notre Dame de France at Leicester Place, onto the last Huguenot church in London at Soho Square. Final destination, One New Change in Cheapside by the current French "starchitect" Jean Nouvel.

This map gives an overview of the route only. Accompanying navigational notes are also available to download.
